

Name: _____

Date: _____

A School Fair

The boys and girls in Ms. Perry's class wanted to earn money to buy new library books for their school. With the help of their parents and teachers, they had a school fair. On a beautiful weekend day all the children and their families came to enjoy games, rides, and balloons. There was lots of food, too.

Menu
Hamburgers	$1.50
Chips	$.50
Cookies	$.25
Soda	$.75

1

Why did Ms. Perry's class have a school fair?

- to play fun games
- to go on exciting rides
- to buy books for the school

2

How did Ms. Perry's class earn money?

- selling books
- selling food
- selling balloons

Name: _____

Date: _____

Baking Cookies

Gina and her mom are making cookies. First, they stir the cookie mix and eggs in a bowl. Next, they put in water and stir some more. Mom turns on the oven. Then Gina rolls out the cookies and uses round cookie cutters and some funny cookie cutters. Last, they bake them. When the cookies cool off they will serve them to Gina's friends.

3

What might be a funny cookie shape?

- a circle
- a square
- a clown face

5

Why do you think Gina and her mom baked the cookies?

- to have something to do
- to share them with Gina's pals
- to have some for Gina's dad

4

Why should Gina's mom be the one to turn on the oven?

- Gina is too short to reach the oven.
- Her mom is a very tall lady.
- It is safer for her mom to do it.

Answer Key

SAT Standard

Apply ideas from text to a new situation

Draw conclusions based on text

Interpret implicit details

SSS Benchmark

LAA213: Reads for information to use in performing a task and learning a new task.

LAA213: Reads for information to use in performing a task and learning a new task. (Uses technical/functional text to gain information.)

LAA213: Reads for information to use in performing a task and learning a new task. (Uses technical/functional text to gain information.)

A School Fair

1. to buy books for the school
2. selling food

Baking Cookies

3. a clown face
4. It is safer for her mom to do it.
5. to share them with Gina's pals