

Name: _____ Date: _____

A Children's Show

Would you like to see some talented children?

Mrs. Jones' first grade class is having a talent show to earn money for some new books.

The show will be on February 14th at 3:00 in our classroom.

Everyone is welcome to come! Tickets to the show are only $1.00 for family and friends and can be bought in the school office. Teachers and other classes are free!

If you want to see singing, dancing, and maybe even some magic tricks, don't miss the show!

1

Why is Mrs. Jones' class having a show?

- to show how talented they are
- to get money for books
- to teach their friends new songs

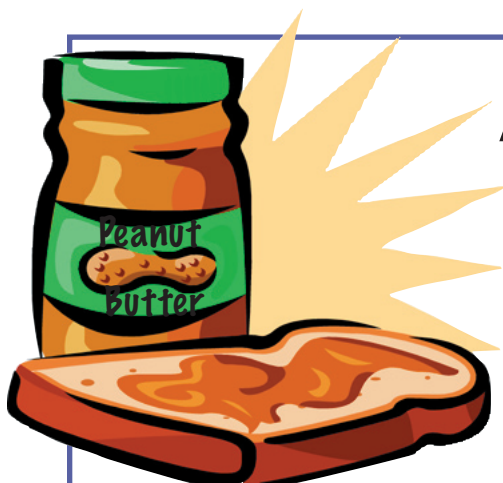

2

Who will pay $1.00 to see the show?

- teachers
- moms and dads
- other students

Name: _____

Date: _____

A Fold-over Sandwich

Do you feel hungry after school? It may not be time for dinner, but you need a snack. Here is what you can do. Make a peanut butter and jelly fold-over sandwich!

Get a piece of bread, a jar of peanut butter, a jar of jelly, and a butter knife. Do not use a sharp knife!

Spread some peanut butter on the bread with the knife. Next, put some jelly on the bread. Fold the piece of bread in half and enjoy!

3

Why would you want to make a fold-over sandwich?

- It is too late for dinner.
- You are hungry before dinner.
- You do not want your dinner.

5

Why should you use a butter knife and not a sharp knife?

- to keep from being hurt
- to spread the jelly easily
- to cut the bread in half

4

You can tell that this snack

- is easy to make
- will not taste good
- takes a while to eat

Answer Key

SAT Standard

Apply ideas from text to a new situation

Draw conclusions based on text

Interpret implicit details

SSS Benchmark

LAA213: Reads for information to use in performing a task and learning a new task.

LAA213: Reads for information to use in performing a task and learning a new task. (Uses technical/functional text to gain information.)

LAA213: Reads for information to use in performing a task and learning a new task. (Uses technical/functional text to gain information.)

A Children's Show

1. to get money for books
2. moms and dads

A Fold-over Sandwich

3. You are hungry before dinner.
4. is easy to make
5. to keep from being hurt